ABSTRAK

Prinsip Non-Diskriminasi telah dituangkan dalam International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) dan International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR) dan telah menjadi hukum Hak Asasi Manusia Internasional yang mengikat negara pihak secara hukum. Dalam hal ini, India sebagai negara pihak kedua kovenan tersebut telah memberlakukan Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019 yang memiliki ketentuan pembedaan perlakuan berdasarkan agama didalamnya. Penelitian ini dimaksudkan untuk menganalisis konsistensi ketentuan dalam Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019 dengan Prinsip Non-Diskriminasi dalam ICCPR dan ICESCR. Metode penelitian yang digunakan adalah metode yuridis normatif, yaitu dengan cara melakukan studi kepustakaan. Hasil penelitian adalah bahwa Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019 tidak konsisten dengan Prinsip Non-Diskriminasi dalam ICCPR dan ICESCR.

ABSTRACT

The Principle of Non-Discrimination has been stated in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR) and has become International Human Rights law that binds state parties legally. In this case, India as a state party to both covenant has enacted the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019 which has provisions for differentiating treatment based on religion in it. This research is intended to analyze the consistency of the provisions in the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019 with the Principles of Non-Discrimination in the ICCPR and ICESCR. The research method used is the normative juridical method, namely by conducting a literature study. The results of the study are that the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019 is not consistent with the Principles of Non-Discrimination in the ICCPR and ICESCR.
